

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2015 · STAR TRIBUNE · SPORTS · C9

preps volleyball state tournament

CLASS 3A ROUNDUP

Eagan's Erie Orr bumped the ball to a teammate Friday in the Class 3A semifinal volleyball match against Champlin Park.

Eagan makes final third time in row

The Wildcats squeaked by Champlin Park. They face Prior Lake for the title.

By HEATHER KILDE
Special to the Star Tribune

Matches do not get much tighter than Eagan's buzzer victory Friday that puts the Wildcats in the Class 3A championship match for the third consecutive season.

The Wildcats squeaked by Champlin Park. They face Prior Lake for the title.

Matches do not get much tighter than Eagan's buzzer victory Friday that puts the Wildcats in the Class 3A championship match for the third consecutive season.

Matches do not get much tighter than Eagan's buzzer victory Friday that puts the Wildcats in the Class 3A championship match for the third consecutive season.

CLASS 2A ROUNDUP

No. 1 Belle Plaine bounces champions

Tigers' four-set win knocked out Stewarville. No. 2 Concordia Academy swept into the final.

By BRUCE EVANS
Special to the Star Tribune

Minutes after their hopes for a Class 2A title defense came to an end Friday, all the Stewarville players could do was smile and shake their heads.

Minutes after their hopes for a Class 2A title defense came to an end Friday, all the Stewarville players could do was smile and shake their heads.

CLASS 1A ROUNDUP

Waterville-Elysian-Morristown finds its rhythm

The Buccaneers needed to come from behind to beat Tracy-Milroy-Balaton.

By HEATHER KILDE
Special to the Star Tribune

The Buccaneers needed to come from behind to beat Tracy-Milroy-Balaton.

The Buccaneers needed to come from behind to beat Tracy-Milroy-Balaton.

The Buccaneers needed to come from behind to beat Tracy-Milroy-Balaton.

The Buccaneers needed to come from behind to beat Tracy-Milroy-Balaton.

Belle Plaine players jumped and cheered about their first trip to the state volleyball final after Friday's victory over Stewarville. The top-ranked Tigers will play Concordia Academy.

SCHEDULE/RESULTS

Table with columns for Class, Date, Time, Location, and Matchup. Includes Class 1A, 2A, and 3A results and schedules.

Waterville-Elysian-Morristown's Karmyn Kendal, who's looking forward to facing conference foe Bethlehem Academy in the state final, got a kill past Tracy-Milroy-Balaton's defense.